

▲ Clay plain tiles:
as unique as the
hands that made them.

Nothing compares to handmade clay roof tiles.
The character, the durability and, of course, the beauty. It's something that can't be replicated.
That's why our Canterbury range of handmade clay plain tiles is created true to tradition.

See history in the making for yourself at marley.co.uk/handmade

Available in three distinctive colours – Loxleigh, Burford and Chailey – our handmade tiles will enhance the character of any roof, and are the perfect choice for heritage and prestigious projects.

▲
Chailey
(MA0140)

▲
Burford
(MA0141)

▲
Loxleigh
(MA0142)

True to tradition, down to the last detail.

- ▲ A range of three distinctive colours in a sandfaced finish suitable for roofing and vertical tiling
- ▲ 40° minimum pitch
- ▲ Available with traditional handmade fittings and decorative accessories
- ▲ A natural product with A+ environmental credentials (BREEAM)
- ▲ Frost tested to BS EN 539-2
- ▲ Manufactured from Etruria Marl, considered the finest quality for strength and durability
- ▲ All three colours can be mixed on the roof for a truly bespoke blend

To order a sample, speak to a specialist or just discover the range for yourself, call 01283 722588 or visit marley.co.uk/handmade

Tell me more

Call 01283 722588

Email info@marley.co.uk

Or visit marley.co.uk

Marley, Lichfield Road, Branston, Burton upon Trent, DE14 3HD